THE LIST

The definitive guide for St. Louis hipsters, hot happenings, cool people and coveted objects

1

Cruise the Links

Your Escalade makes a statement about who you are. It's a handsome SUV, fun to drive and luxuriously comfortable. Make that same statement on the golf course when you pull up to the tee box in the new GM-licensed Cadillac Escalade Luxury Golf Cart from American Custom Golf Cars, Inc. Heads will turn – and swings will be interrupted – as everyone looks to see who's arrived!

No More Excuses ...

The sun was in my eyes. I couldn't gauge the distance to the pin. The bad-play excuse list is long. Do your game a favor and invest in Sama Bora Bora sunglasses from Destination: Sama. The brown lens helps with depth perception and the polarization filter eliminates all glare on a 180 degree plain. At the very least, you'll have to find more creative excuses!

Be a Pro!

You've been swinging your clubs around the links for years, but your game hasn't improved. Make a commitment to your self to step it up and call 20 Minutes to Par. The trainers strengthen and stretch the muscles that directly influence your game. Their expertise can help you lower your handicap, add yards to your drive and gain better control of your swing.

Drive for Show ...

You can feel it in your bones: This drive will set you apart from your foursome. And then the ball slices. It doesn't have to, though, if you get fitted for your very own FT-i Tour Low CG Driver from Calloway Golf. Choose the right center of gravity location, and the only slice you'll be talking about is your slice of the good life!

Play to Win

You've wondered how you would stack up against great players. This year, find out! The Missouri Open Championship, September 26 – 27, is open to amateurs who are residents of Missouri and have a handicap of 10.0 or less. With registration opening on August 1, you have time to hone your skills to tee up with the state's best at The Club at Old Hawthorne.

A Perfect Pairing!

As you and your golf foursome relax with a brilliant single malt whisky, top off a great day with a premium Honduran cigar. The men – and women – who partake of this post-golf treat will thoroughly enjoy the flavor that the 12-year aged broadleaf wrapper delivers to the Vintage Series 1990 Rocky Patel Signature Collection, available exclusively at JR Cigars.
